Our Parish Mission Statement

We are a family of Roman Catholic Christian believers who are united in our desire to compassionately serve those who are in need, and to share wholeheartedly our faith, our gifts, and our talents. We gather to be strengthened and nourished by the Eucharist at God's Altar and rejoice at receiving His grace through the celebration of all the sacraments. In the footsteps of our patron, St. Anthony of Padua, we faithfully strive to build an ever-stronger parish family and to give living witness to the life of Jesus Christ.

Devotions in 140 Characters

Based on the Archbishop's selected readings. "Do I live worship the ascended Christ as those first disciples did, when he raised his hands to bless them and was lifted up to heaven?" .blogspot.ca/ or his Twitter feed: <http://twitter.com/>

Living in the Word

Living in the Word —Putting the Word of God into practice means serving our brothers and sisters in love. To love as Jesus loved means that we make sacrifices daily for the good of the other. This typically takes place by the gifts we make of time, talent and treasure. Let us consider this carefully and seriously. These are God's gifts to us to be used according to his purpose and in keeping with our identity as disciples of Jesus Christ.

(Archbishop Smith, Pastoral Letter September 14, 2017)

Readings for Sunday, June 9th Pentecost Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2, 1-11 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 104, 24-34 Lord, send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12, 3-7, 12-13 In the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.

Gospel: John 20, 19-23 As the Father has sent me, so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit.

Pentecost Sunday

The Bible tells us that Mary was there in the Upper Room, waiting with the Apostles for the coming of the Holy Spirit. She was the mother who had given birth to the head of the Church, Jesus, in Bethlehem. And now she is the mother who is helping to give birth to the rest of the body of the Church at Pentecost.

What was she doing?

Praying with them, certainly. But she was probably also serving them, being a mother to them in the midst of their confusion and nervousness. They probably were asking her about Jesus, and listening - maybe for the first time - to the story of his birth and childhood. Maybe this is when they first heard about the Annunciation. That was the day the archangel Gabriel came to her and explained that "The Holy Spirit will overshadow you and you will conceive. "She probably told them about the many conversations she had in her heart with the Holy Spirit after that day, the ones St Luke referred to in his Gospel when he wrote (more than once): "And Mary kept all these things, contemplating them in her heart."

To contemplate is to go over an idea in the silence of your mind and converse about it with God. And that's what Mary was always doing. Becoming the spouse of the Holy Spirit didn't bring fireworks and fancy balls into her life. It brought meaning, mission, wisdom, courage - virtues that take root and grow in the quiet center of the soul.....just as seeds take root and grow in the unseen darkness of the soil. Come Holy Spirit!

Mass Intentions - When a priest offers Mass, he usually has a particular person as an intention. The fruits of the Mass extend to the person for whom the Mass is being offered, the Priest himself, and those who attended the Mass. Masses can be offered for departed souls, or for the special intention of a living person or for ones family. If you are interested in having a Mass, please contact the Parish Office. Please note: The Archdiocese of Edmonton has set the stipend for Mass intentions at $10.00 each.
