What is Christian Marriage?

A loving, forgiving, faithful and compassionate God strongly invites a man and a woman to love
each other with such depth in an unbreakable, covenantal bond of Marriage, that they are,
in truth, the sacrament or sign of God's love for one another and for God's people

Q&A

What information will I have to share with the group?

Couples will be asked to introduce themselves. Personal sharing is done just between the two of you.

Will I need to attend all sessions?

Yes. We require attendance at all sessions as each one builds on the last and will help to prepare you for marriage.

What does the course cost?

Our fee for both weekends including lunch and continental breakfasts is $225. This also includes FOCCUS a pre-marriage inventory and facilitated review.

How many others will be attending the course?

Our weekend attendance ranges from five to twenty couples, as well as a team of presenters who will journey with you.

What if one of us isn't Catholic?

Our program is designed to assist all couples in preparing for marriage, regardless of their faith background.

What do I wear?

Dress is casual for the weekends. We ask that people dress appropriately for Mass on Sunday morning.

If you have any questions please contact Gigi at 780-875-2883

What will our Marriage Prep look like?

The course is divided over two weekends.
Sessions include topics such as:

- Images of God and Married Love.
- Family of origin
- Roles and expectations in Marriage.
- Communication and Conflict Resolution.
- Money/Finances and Marriage
- Sexuality and intimacy

Our program has been developed to help couples grow in understanding of their relationship with each other. We hope to provide you with the tools to foster a successful marriage.

Throughout the weekends, time will be given for individual/couple reflection and discussion.

We are looking forward journeying with you as you prepare for your upcoming Marriage
